

Madeira

Floral and cycling splendour all year round

Cycling in Madeira is a surprising adventure worth considering, even though it's primarily renowned for its hiking opportunities. You'll be pleasantly surprised by the cycling experience here, thanks to stunning panoramic routes that cover most of the island. For more challenging terrains, our transfer services have got you covered. With a year-round summer-like climate and vibrant flora and fauna, Madeira offers an ideal cycling environment.

Along the way, you'll encounter beautiful parks, serene bays, and breathtaking cliffs. Additionally, you won't miss out on cultural experiences, as Madeira, a Portuguese island with a rich history dating back to the 15th century, boasts magnificent quintas and monumental fortresses. Spend an enchanting week on this flowery island, where UNESCO World Cultural Heritage landscapes, maritime traditions, and warm Madeiran hospitality await.

The cycling week on this Atlantic island caters to experienced cyclists, providing an eight-day journey around Madeira's coastal and inland regions. Madeira welcomes cyclists year-round, with mild temperatures from February to December, making it a versatile destination for your biking adventures.

Itinerary

DAY 1	Arrival in Caniço
Enjoy all the amenities of the hotel, right on the beach and of course the sea! In the evening you will be greeted by our representative and informed about the trip.
DAY 2	Canico – Camacha – Porto da Cruz	approx. 25 km
In the morning first transfer to Camacha and any adjustments to the rental bikes. This small town is also famous for its (basket) wickerwork. You can of course also buy this practical gift directly from the makers. Via a beautiful mountain road, it goes by bike to the east coast. Enjoy the beautiful view on the route to the small fishing village of Porto da Cruz. Relax on the volcanic sandy beach or visit one of the last sugar cane mills on the island.
 ca. 25 km  Transfer Caniço – Camacha
DAY 3	Porto da Cruz – Santana – São Vicente	approx. 40 km
A long, steep climb is covered by a bus this morning. Your cycling tour begins in Santana. But before that, you should definitely visit one of Madeira's landmarks: the traditional thatched farmhouses have been lovingly restored here. The cycle route leads on a beautiful country road through small, charming villages always along the east coast to Sao Vicente. The place, named after St. Vincent, is located on the coast and is also known for its 400,000-year-old caves.
 ca. 40 km  Transfer Porto da Cruz – Santana

DAY
4São Vicente – Rocha Negra – Porto Monizapprox. 35
km

Today it's going to the mountains! A transfer will take you to the Paúl da Serra plateau. Here you get on your bike and follow the high road past grazing cows and sheep. A long descent takes you to the west coast of the island. Before reaching Porto Moniz, a magnificent view will almost take your breath away. The overnight stop for this day is known for its natural pools. The sea here is formed from black lava caves into smaller and larger pools, which are popular with locals and tourists alike.

ca. 35 km

Transfer São Vicente – Paúl da Serra

DAY
5Porto Moniz – Calheta

approx. 45 km

Today's cycling stage takes you along the west coast and is entirely devoted to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Madeira. You cycle through fragrant forests and through small villages, always accompanied by the view of the lower sea. After every bend, you will see a new photo opportunity. In the lively town of Calheta, not only the marina was rebuilt, sand was imported from Morocco for the artificial beach. This former sugar cane town has become a popular meeting place for locals.

ca. 45 km

DAY
6Calheta – Funchal

approx. 50 km

In the first part of today, you will cycle directly along the coast towards the capital. From Ribeira Brava, the route ascends a little inland and you reach what is perhaps the most spectacular vantage point on the entire island. At Cabo Girao, a glass platform has been built 580 meters above the sea, and the view over the highest cliffs in Europe is dizzying. A long descent then takes you back to the coast and into the centre of colourful and lively Funchal.

ca. 50 km

Funchal en Monte by cable car

The cable car will take you to the popular excursion destination of Monte on this bike-free day. This area used to be a stylish climatic health resort with stately 'Quintas' and now offers many possibilities for a fun day. You can visit the pilgrimage church of Nossa Senhora do Monte and the tropical garden of Jardim Tropical Monte Palace. There is also a leisurely stroll along the famous waterways, the Levadas. Even more spectacular, however, is the rapid descent into the valley in one of the unique reed sledges. You see, even without a bike, Madeira is not boring...
