

South Tyrolean Wine and Alpine Pasture Trail

Italian flair and South Tyrolean specialities to discover

What more could you want: romantic villages, views of historic castles and palaces and a landscape bordered by flowering vines and fragrant apple trees? The icing on the cake is that you can also enjoy excellent South Tyrolean culinary specialities with fine wines. Stroll through the winding alleyways, and taste the city air on the light-flooded high plateau of Mölten.

Details about the walking holiday in South Tyrol and the Alpine Trail

Begin your hiking trip in the spa town of Merano, where beloved Austrian Empress Sisi fell in love. Before you come to the provincial capital of Bolzano and the fairytale Piazza Walther, visit Lana. The charming market town is also known as the Apple Metropolis. A cable car ride to Jenesien is also part of this tour. From a bird's eye view, you can see the castles, palaces, Lake Caldaro and the mountain massifs of the Dolomites.

The highlights of the South Tyrol walking tour:

- Spa Merano: The spa town and the idyllic old town of Bolzano let you enjoy typical Italian flair.
- South Tyrolean wine route: Take time to enjoy! Because you don't get to taste wine like this every day.
- Romantic views: The Rossengarten (a mountain group), the Adige Valley and Lake Caldaro will melt any mountaineer's heart. Because the Italians and their landscapes have a lot of charm.
- Knottnkino: A unique vantage point of the Adige Valley and the Meraner Becken on your way from Mölten to Merano.

Worth knowing about the South Tyrolean walking tour

All routes on this tour take place on good hiking trails. These are mostly forest roads or paved roads. The distance is between 11 and 19 kilometres daily. If you have good basic fitness, this hiking trip is guaranteed to be pleasurable. You will be rewarded with panoramic views, culinary temptations and fresh alpine air.

Route summary

The routes lead you on nice hiking paths, on so-called 'Waalwege'-paths (ancient irrigation systems) and in parts on forest roads and asphalted paths. The paths are easy to walk on, and a good basic fitness level is required for daily walking times between 4 to 5.5 hours.

This tour has been graded as Medium. Find out more about our walking holiday difficulty levels.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Meran

Discover the countless enchanting corners of Meran during a stroll through this spa town, a favourite dwelling spot of the Empress Sissi. After a walk through its arbour alleys, relax along the promenade of the raging river Passer.

Meran – Nals approx. 19 km | 5.5 hours

Along the path 'Marlinger Waalweg', the longest Waal of South Tyrol into the 'apple metropolis' Lana. On your way marvellous views of Meran and the Etsch valley until Bozen await. Through deciduous forests, you ascend all the way to Tisens, famous for its sweet chestnuts. The second section of Day 2 brings you to an area teeming with castles, in Nals the 3 castles Stachelburg, Schwanburg and Payrsberg await.
