Individual arrival in Mainz. Embarkation from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM. Maybe there's time to get to know the capital of Rhineland-Palatinate with its lovingly restored half-timbered houses and the Romanesque Cathedral of St. Martin?

 ca. 17 - 26 km  Nierstein-Worms

DAY
3

Worms – Mannheim approx. 25 km

In the imperial city of Worms, your cycling stage starts today. In Mannheim, you follow the course of the beautiful Neckar to Heidelberg. The Roman city of Ladenburg with its historic old town is worth a short stopover. The ruins of Heidelberg Castle are already visible in the distance above the old town. Stroll across Heidelberg's famous sandstone bridge or through the winding alleys and dreamy squares of the old town.

 ca. 25 km

DAY
4Mannheim – Heidelberg –
Mannheimapprox. 52
km

Today you drive through the heart of the province via Eppelheim and Plankstadt. Schwetzingen Castle and its beautiful castle garden are just two reasons to visit the charming town. The continuation route takes you to your destination in Mannheim. Almost all of the city's sights, such as the water tower and the baroque castle, are within walking distance of the centre and are definitely worth a visit.

 ca. 52 kmDAY
5Mannheim – Speyer approx. 27 km

Today's path leads you to the cathedral city of Speyer. Enjoy the short cycling leg through areas designated as nature reserves and natural floodplains. Speyer Cathedral has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1981.

 ca. 27 kmDAY
6Speyer – Germersheim approx. 22 km

You cycle through the Palatinate along the arms of the old Rhine through seemingly untouched nature. Look forward to the old fortified town of Germersheim with its many beautiful alleys, corners and squares. Enjoy the boat trip to Gamsheim and review the day's experiences with a glass of wine on the deck or in the salon.

 ca. 22 km  Germersheim-Gamsheim

DAY
7Gambsheim – Strasbourg approx. 18 km

In the last stage you will cycle comfortably along the river through the rolling Rhine plain to the Alsatian capital Strasbourg with its many canals. Visit Strasbourg Cathedral, the city's landmark, or the picturesque tanning district with its historic half-timbered houses and enjoy a slice of French zest for life at the end of your trip.

 ca. 18 kmDAY
8Return trip or extension

Disembark after breakfast until 09:00. Individual journey home.
