

Around Madeira with Charm

Challenging coastal walks and rugged landscapes

From steep and rugged coasts to green hills and small bathing bays, from cloud forests to sun-drenched banana plantations. The flower island of Madeira offers a varied landscape and a pleasant climate all year round. The dry east, the cool north, the barren mountains, the humid plateau and the sunny south invite you to discover this wonderful island. In every season a wide variety of flowers and trees bloom at different altitudes.

Details about the walking holiday around Madeira with Charm

The circular hiking tour in Madeira starts in the small fishing village of Porto da Cruz on the black sandy beach. Be sure to taste a "poncha", a drink made with honey, orange juice and sugar cane schnapps. The daily routes run on a variety of hiking trails, some of which can, however, be narrow paths. Sure-footedness and a head for heights is required in some places. You hike an average of five hours a day through this botanical paradise of Madeira.

The highlights of the Madeira with Charm walking tour:

- Stunning Coastal Views: The impressive North Coast across the Boca do Risco saddle is via an old supply route. Enjoy the view from the spectacular terraces towards Porto da Cruz.
- Exotic floral splendour: Shady laurel forests, which are part of the UNESCO World Heritage, line your route.
- Sea swimming pools made of lava rock: The most beautiful bathing spots can be found in Funchal and Porto Moniz. Tip for snorkelers and divers: The Gulf Stream is home to a variety of tropical species! So don't forget diving goggles!
- Lively capital Funchal: The city attracts many sights. The Sé Cathedral and the market hall are worth a visit.

Worth knowing about the Madeira with Charm walking tour

Hiking in Madeira means packing multi-purpose clothing. In the north, surrounded by barren mountains and humid plateaus, it is cool. The sunny south impresses with flowers, eucalyptus trees and a diverse culture. The island with 235,000 inhabitants leaves plenty of scope for romantic and idyllic hikes. One of the most beautiful villages in Madeira is "Prazeres". Here you can experience the original life of the islanders.

Route summary

Daily routes along well-built and very diverse paths, which can however sometimes be on narrow paths. Lots of paths run along the coastline and also along Levadas (irrigation canals), where a head for heights and sure-footedness are essential in some sections. You will need a good level of fitness for this waking holiday when the walks may take max. 5 hours.

This tour has been graded as Challenging. Find out more about our walking holiday difficulty levels.

Itinerary

DAY 1	Arrival in Porto da Cruz
In the small fishing village of Porto da Cruz you can relax on the black sand beach. You can also visit one of the last sugar cane mills, where you can taste the well-known “poncha”, a local drink made from sugar cane brandy, honey and freshly squeezed orange juice.
DAY 2	Circular walk around the North Coast	approx. 15 km 4.5 to 5 hours
After a short transfer to Machico, you will hike along the impressive north coast over the Boca do Risco saddle on an old supply route that was once used to cultivate the vineyards. Today, one of the most beautiful hiking trails along this route leads to Porto da Cruz, where the spectacularly landscaped agricultural terraces still inspire. Enjoy the breathtaking views.

DAY
4Sao Vicente – Porto Moniz

approx. 11 km | 3.5 to 4 hours

Transfer to the mountains to the Paul da Serra plateau. Today's hike brings you closer to the green mountains of Madeira. You hike over the mountain ranges on promising paths and walk through shady laurel forests, which are part of the UNESCO World Natural Heritage. A great hiking trail takes you through colourful blooming gorse bushes to Fanal, a fairytale forest and pasture area: skewed trees, lichen-covered trees, green plains and grazing highland cattle create a particularly mystical atmosphere. In the afternoon you will reach the coastal town of Porto Moniz with a beautiful view of the azure blue sea. The lovely place is known for its natural swimming pools, which the ocean has carved out of black lava rock.
