

Majorca's Highlights with Charm

Coastal views, oranges and mountains

When you think of the most beautiful parts of Majorca what comes to mind? Dreamy mountain villages, such as Valldemossa, paradisiacal coastlines, juicy oranges from Sòller or the fertile Orient Valley? Not to mention the captivating Serra de Tramuntana in the northwest of the island and the hustle and bustle of the capital Palma.

Details about the walking holiday around Majorca

All of the above can be experienced first-hand during the hiking trip to Mallorca's hotspots. Stroll through olive groves to the mountains of Tramuntana. Enjoy the sea air in the Bay of Deià. The mountain hike to Cami Costera won't disappoint with its wonderful views. Continue on one of the beautiful coastal paths to the Torrent de Pareis. At the Pass de L'Ofre, you can see the Cuber reservoir and the imposing Puig Major.

The highlights of the Majorca Highlights walking tour:

- The capital city of Palma: Mingle with the locals of the stylish island capital and explore charming boutiques, shops and numerous 'heladerías' (ice cream parlours).
- Orient Valley: Orchards and herds of sheep are idyllic! Enjoy the unique atmosphere.
- Castell d'Alaró: Finca Es Verger invites you to taste delicious Mallorcan specialities at this place of pilgrimage.

Worth knowing about the hiking tour around Majorca

On the eight-day hiking tour, you will experience the paradise island of Mallorca. Since the journey leads both along the coast and through the mountains, you should be accustomed to mountain hiking. Because only then can you enjoy daily tours with a maximum of 16 kilometres to the full.

The duration of the hikes is between four and a half and five hours. A special feature of this tour is the walk from Valldemossa to Deià, which offers spectacular views and a deep crashing east coast. For this, sure-footedness and a head for heights are needed.

Route summary

On each day’s walk, you can explore some of Mallorca’s walking classics, which do require some good fitness. You will walk on good, sometimes stony footpaths. For the walk from Valldemossa to Deia you need to be surefooted and you need to have a head for heights.

This tour has been graded as Challenging. Find out more about our walking holiday difficulty levels.

Itinerary

DAY 1	Arrival in Valldemossa
This idyllic artists' village, which is embedded in the Serra de Tramuntana mountains, invites you to go on an exploratory walk. Stroll along the traces of Frédéric Chopin and George Sand through the lively little alleyways with numerous cafes and galleries. You can take a magnificent rest in the garden of the well-known charterhouse.
DAY 2	Valldemossa – Deià	approx. 12 km   5 hours
Looking back at the wonderful Valldemossa silhouettes, you will take an easy walk through the olive gardens before you go along the old coal paths in the Tramuntana mountains. Soon you can expect some breathtaking views from the sparse mountain landscape over the coast towards Palma. On the spectacular Archduke Johann horse track, you will go along mountain paths with magnificent views over towards the next artists' village, Deia.

Circular walk around Sa Calobra

approx. 16 km | 4 to 4.5 hours

Short transfer to the Mirador de ses Barques with a view of Pt. Soller and its bay. You will walk unhurriedly through picturesque farmland to a finca where you can refuel with some freshly squeezed orange juice. You will then be rewarded for doing the subsequent ascent to Cami Costera with a beautiful view. One of the island's loveliest coastal paths takes you along the Cala Tuent shingle beach and then further on towards Sa Calobra where you can hike along the impressive Torrent de Parais. You will then take a boat ride along the coast to Pt. Sóller.

5

Pt. Sóller/Sóller – Cuber Stausee – Orient/Alaró

approx. 13 km | 5.5 hours

Today you will be walking one of the classic walks in Mallorca. Accompanied by the smell of oranges, you will leave Sóller and then you will soon get to the wonderfully cool Biniaraix canyon. You will then walk up to the Pass de L'Ofre by going along the terraced pilgrimage path looking towards Sóller. From there, you can see the Cuber reservoir and the mighty Puig Major. The descent is on an old shepherd's path to Orient, which is Mallorca's orchard.

 ca. 5,5 hours     13 km     990 m     660 m

6

Circular walk around Castell d'Alaró

approx. 12 km | 4 hours

On a leisurely circular walk, you will discover the Orient valley with its orchards and flocks of sheep. You will walk on lovely panoramic paths as well as on stepped paths with wonderful views of the picturesque scenery and of Castell d'Alaró, which is a place of pilgrimage with the hermitage. Make sure that you try out the local specialities in the Es Verger finca before you then head back to Orient.
