The route has been meticulously curated to encompass a multitude of family-friendly highlights. Spanning approximately 145 kilometres from Trier to Cochem, the journey is thoughtfully divided, allowing each segment to be comfortably completed within a week.

This strategic division ensures that the route accommodates a wide range of ages and skill levels, offering a diverse and enriching experience for all family members. From captivating landscapes to engaging attractions, the route promises a fulfilling adventure, fostering memorable moments for everyone to cherish.

The highlights of the Moselle cycling holiday with children at a glance

- Wine as far as the eye can see: Cycle along the "Wine Road of the Romans", visit the oldest wine town in Germany, travel on the Roman wine ship and get to know the charming wine-growing villages
- Need to take a refreshment break: It's a good thing you always pass on family-friendly outdoor pools. For example, at the recreational lake Triolago with toboggan run, football golf and water ski cable car. Experience history up close in the historic city of Trier, at the remains of the Roman "Villa Rustica" or the ruins of Grevenburg
- Climbing heights: The adventurous Calmont climbing wall in Bremm is located directly on the steepest vineyard in Europe.

Worth knowing about the family cycling holiday along the Moselle

The cycling holiday commences conveniently from your accommodation in Trier, serving as the starting point for your adventure. The journey along the Moselle entails cycling 25 to 35 kilometres per day, ensuring an enjoyable experience for all, including younger cyclists.

The flat and tranquil route, winding through the picturesque vineyards of Rhineland-Palatinate, guarantees a delightful and accessible ride for families. This carefully planned itinerary allows even the youngest riders to revel in the beauty of the region, fostering a memorable and pleasant cycling experience along the river.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Trier

Arrival in Trier and at the hotel. You will receive the travel documents and rental bicycles (if booked) at the hotel. Trier is overflowing with historic Roman buildings. Whether it's the symbol of the city, Porta Nigra, or the amphitheatre, it's well worth a visit. Or you can visit the toy museum and participate in the cool museum rally.

Trier – Mehring approx. 22 km

Finally, your bike ride starts! On the left bank of the Moselle, you cycle on easy cycle paths past Pfalz to Schweich. Here it is worth making a small detour to the adventure pool with its 52 metre long giant slide. You then continue on the right bank and along the "Wine Route of the Romans" to the recreational lake Triolago where you can enjoy the toboggan run, football golf, water ski cable car and much more. Then we continue to Mehring, your overnight stop.

 ca. 22 km

DAY
3

Mehring – Piesport approx. 26 km

Visit the remains of the Roman Villa Rustica. Then it goes over the cycle path along the Moselle further via Detzem and Leiwen with their large playgrounds. Past the vineyards, you cycle to Neumagen-Dhron, Germany's oldest wine town. Perhaps you will see the original Roman wine ship sailing on the Moselle here or perhaps you will also make a cultural journey through history yourself. Once you arrive in Piesport, you can visit the Roman wine press from the 3rd century.

 ca. 26 km

Piesport – Bernkastel-Kues approx. 18 km

Today you cycle to Bernkastel-Kues, where the numerous small alleys and the colourful half-timbered buildings are impressive. In the evening we included a short boat trip for the family (only for variant 6/5). For parents, we recommend a sample of the well-known "Bernkastler Doctor".

 ca. 18 km

Bernkastel-Kues – Traben-Trarbach approx. 22 km

Numerous vineyards also accompany you on today's bike tour. Through the wine-growing region "Kröver Nacktarsch" you reach your destination for the day with Traben-Trarbach. Many leisure pools invite you to relax along the way. Traben-Trarbach offers some architectural masterpieces of Art Nouveau and the Belle Epoque. We've included a short round of miniature golf for your family.

 ca. 22 km

Traben-Trarbach – Bullay approx. 35 km

In Enkirch, a pearl of half-timbered architecture on the Moselle, you should take a short break. You cycle through the wine-growing region "Zeller Schwarze Katz" to Bullay. Embedded in forests and vineyards, this place has lost none of the charm and unadulterated romance of an old wine village.

 ca. 35 km

Bullay – Beilstein – Cochem approx. 22 km

You arrive early in Beilstein, commonly known as the Rothenburg on the Moselle. From there it goes with the Moselle ship to Cochem. In Cochem, you should plan enough time to visit the charming center and the 11th-century Imperial Castle. The Cochem chairlift takes you to the Pinnerkreuz viewpoint. Enjoy the view over the city and the Moselle!

 22 km  Rothenburg an der Mosel – Cochem

DAY
8

Return trip or extension

Today we say goodbye to the vineyards, castles and ruins. Or would you rather experience even more adventures during an extra day on the Moselle?

Route information

The Moselle Cycle Path is extensively signposted, ensuring easy navigation throughout the journey. Predominantly, the path follows paved or asphalt roads and designated cycle paths.

Encounters with traffic are minimal, with only a few brief passages where cyclists may experience slight vehicular activity.

The route's design prioritises safety and convenience, allowing cyclists to enjoy the journey along the Moselle with minimal disruptions, providing a predominantly smooth and tranquil cycling experience.
