

Classic Tuscany: Montecatini Terme-Florence

Enjoy challenging cycling in the Tuscany hills

Olive groves, cypresses, open landscapes and vineyards, as far as the view extends. What are we talking about? About Tuscany of course. Small towns, traditional stories, Tuscan architecture, famous artists and breathtaking nature make the bike ride along the picturesque hills an unforgettable holiday.

Details about the bicycle tour on the Classic Tuscany tour

Enjoyment is central during this bicycle tour through Italy. Whether it's seeing the dreamy landscapes or trying the local specialities. On the saddle of a bicycle, you will experience a pure Italian lifestyle of a special kind. Do you dream of narrow streets, a good glass of wine and real Italian cuisine? In Florence, Pisa and Siena, your dreams come true. There is enough time to explore the historical cities of northern Italy and be enchanted by the Italian culture.

The highlights of the Tuscany cycling holiday at a glance

- Leonardo da Vinci: Every time you step on the pedals, you get closer to Leonardo da Vinci's house. Once in Vinci, a visit to the museum in the castle is highly recommended.
- Piazza dei Miracoli: A special highlight of the bike tour is the stopover in Pisa. Because who doesn't know the famous Leaning Tower? In addition to this special spectacle, the city also has many other beauties in store!
- The wine village of Castellina: The penultimate stage leads to the wine village of Castellina, where the world-famous "Chianti Classico" is grown. This enchanting wine village is also known as the "capital of the Chianti region" for its famous wines and olives.

Things worth knowing about the Classic Tuscany bike tour

You will cycle for eight days in total through the hilly landscape of Italy. Do you like demanding tours and are you in top shape? Then this Tuscany tour is perfect for you because hilly landscapes and difficult climbs await you. We recommend e-bike upgrades on this tour.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Montecatini Terme

Information meeting and issuance of the rental bicycles. A first walk and acquaintance with this well-known spa town presents itself. Or would you rather take the Cable Car to Montecatini Alto?

 Category A: Hotel Croce di Malta

 Category B: Hotel Mediterraneo

Day trip to Vinci approx. 55 km

First, you drive over the wide plain of the Valdinievole valley, characterized by a lot of agriculture. Via the first Tuscan villages, the journey continues through olive groves to Vinci, the birthplace of Leonardo. The museum in the castle is a must-visit (optional), as it is home to one of the inventor's most extensive and original collections of machines and models.

 ca. 55 km

Montecatini Terme – Pisa approx. 40 - 90 km

The small medieval wine town of Montecarlo, which produces one of the few white wines in Tuscany, is on the road to Lucca (you can also take the train on your own). You will cycle on to Lake Massacciuccoli (also called Lake Giacomo Puccini) with a breathtaking view as far as the sea and on to Pisa with its Place of Miracles ("Piazza dei Miracoli" - Leaning Tower).

 ca. 40-90 km

DAY
4Pisa – Casciana Terme approx. 50 km

First, the route takes you along the Arno River. You will cross the many fertile fields during this ride. It continues through the hills surrounding Pisa, where wine grapes, olives and peaches thrive on the fertile slopes. Small medieval villages cling like swallow's nests to the hilltops. With these impressions, the final destination of the day, the spa town of Casciana Terme, is quickly reached.

 ca. 50 kmDAY
5Casciana Terme – San Gimignano approx. 50 km

Today the route goes through various vineyards and over rolling hills and beautiful trails to San Gimignano. Along the way, you will see landscapes of Tuscany as they can only be painted.

 ca. 55 kmDAY
6San Gimignano – Siena approx. 50 km

The beautiful Tuscan landscape on this stage makes many forget about the small slopes along the way. And when you finally arrive in Monteriggioni, you will feel like you have been thrown back to the Middle Ages. But today's highlight is undoubtedly the architectural paradise of Siena.

 ca. 50 kmDAY
7Siena – Florence approx. 50 km

The bike ride leads to the heart of the vast Chianti region. Only here grows the world-famous, and appreciated among wine connoisseurs, "Chianti Classico" grape. Of course, on your way to Greve, you will pass through the enchanting wine village of Castellina. Greve is also known as the capital of the Chianti region thanks to its famous wine and olive production. From here, you will get back to Florence by public bus. The bike drop-off is in Greve.

 ca. 50 km  Bustocht Greve - Florence

DAY
8

Return trip or extension

Today your individual return journey is on the program. You can also combine this tour with the Venice-Florence or Florence-Rome route.

Route information

Tuscany has a stunning but also hilly landscape. We cycle from one famous city to another on beautiful side roads and unpaved roads. When entering and leaving the cities, more traffic must be taken into account.
