

Porto to Lisbon

Connecting two of Europe's most beautiful cities

This delightful bike tour connects the two major cities of Porto and Lisbon, allowing you to explore numerous cultural landmarks while cycling through lush natural landscapes and picturesque coastal paths. Your journey begins in Porto, a World Heritage Site and one of Europe's most stunning cities. Here, you can savor a glass of port wine and indulge in other culinary delights.

As you pedal on, you'll discover Aveiro, often called the Venice of Portugal, with its charming canals and salt pans. You'll also visit the vibrant coastal town of Figueira da Foz, the famous Nazaré Beach known for its towering waves, and many more captivating destinations. Your journey culminates in Lisbon, the capital of Portugal, where the historic city boasts an array of attractions right along the Tagus River.

This bike tour promises a wonderful and highly diverse adventure, combining cultural exploration with the beauty of nature along the way.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Porto

Take a stroll along the Douro riverbank and make sure to try a glass of the famous port today.

 Airport transfer Porto Airport - Porto Hotel

2

Porto – Furadouro approx. 45 km

In the morning you will cross the Douro and cycle past the port cellars. After this, you will head away from the hustle and bustle of the city and towards the quiet Atlantic coast. Going past fine sandy beaches and through extensive pine forests you will head south. Today's final destination is well known for its hospitality and excellent fish. Have a good time!

 ca. 45 km

Furadouro – Aveiro approx. 40 km + ferry ride

There is a lot of nature to be admired on today's stage. You will cycle through the Aveiro lagoon and while doing so you will be surrounded by water. Do some bird watching at São Jacinto Dunes Natural Reserve or watch the salt extraction at the salt works. A ferry will then take you to Aveiro, a place considered as the "Portuguese Venice" due to its canals and its famous Moliceiro boats.

 ca. 40 km  São Jacinto Dünen – Aveiro

DAY
4Aveiro – Praira de Mira approx. 35 km

The bike path along the Aveiro lagoon will lead you to Costa Nova. The colourfully-striped beach houses are a popular backdrop for holiday photos. You continue cycling leisurely towards the South and soon you will reach today's destination. Take a stroll along the kilometre-long sandy beach and enjoy the atmosphere at this peaceful seaside resort.

ca. 35 km

Praia de Mira – Figueira da Foz

DAY
5Praia de Mira – Figueira da Foz approx. 45 km

You cycle through a dune landscape on gentle hills. Crickets chirp in the pine forest and soon you will see the first cliff ahead of you. The road leads spectacularly towards the Cabo Mondego lighthouse and then further on towards Figueira da Foz, which is a charming little town with lots of restaurants, decorative alleys, slow-paced cafes and of course a beautiful beach.

ca. 65 km

DAY
6Figueira da Foz – Sintra – Cascais approx. 45 km + transfer

In the morning you transfer to royal Sintra where you will find many palaces and stately homes. From here it's a rushing descent back towards the coast. Wonderful views of the sea and dreamy sandy bays make the odd climb on the way to Cascais worth it. At the end of the day, you will be welcomed by the lovely promenade to the stylish town of Cascais.

ca. 70 km

DAY
7Cascais – Lisbon Approx. 40 km

The cycle path runs right along the shore to Estoril. After that you will soon reach the mouth of the River Tagus. The famous Belem Tower lies directly en route after which you will ride underneath Lisbon's landmark, the mighty suspension bridge. Continue along the banks of the Tagus to your hotel in the modern district of Oriente.

 Transfer Obidos – Lisbon

DAY
8Return trip or extension

After breakfast, this impressive cycling trip ends or you can make use of an extension and enjoy all the beautiful things this city has to offer.

Route information

For the most part, your route will lead you along flat coastal paths, with the exception of the last two stages that incorporate a few brief uphill sections. You'll mainly ride on asphalt paths, agricultural trails, and Ecovias, which are typical Portuguese bicycle paths constructed on former railway lines. These stages should not pose any difficulties for cyclists who are accustomed to regular biking.
