

Venetian Highlights

A beautiful circular route through Veneto

From tranquil lagoons to inviting sandy beaches, from the Alpine foothills to the gentle slopes of Monti Berici and Euganean hills, and the verdant banks along the Adige and Sile rivers – this Veneto tour offers an extraordinary tapestry of landscapes. The journey unfolds in a symphony of diversity, showcasing the richness of Veneto's varied terrain.

Cultural marvels abound, with highlights such as the ethereal lagoon city of Venice, the architectural gems of Palladio in Vicenza, and the medieval charm of Bassano del Grappa, renowned for its iconic covered wooden bridge. Along the way, picturesque hamlets and towns emerge, each possessing its unique allure. Not to be missed are the sprawling vineyards, including those famed for producing Prosecco.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Venice/Mestre

Today, you will have the opportunity to visit the lagoon city of Venice, which is located only 20 minutes from your hotel and can easily be reached by public transportation.

Mestre/Venice – Chioggia approx. 35 km

The day starts with a tour information meeting and bike fitting. Then you will cycle on the bike path over the Liberty Bridge to Venice. You will take the ferry to Lido and continue your bike journey via Pellestrina, with a marvelous view over the sea, to Chioggia, a quiet little town, reminiscent of the Venetian maritime supremacy which invites you to stay and enjoy yourself in one of its typical fish restaurants.

 ca. 35 km

3

Chioggia – Abano Terme approx. 55 km

Before you start the stage, you should take some more time to enjoy the flair of the Venetian lagoon. The main route today is the antique river course of Bacchiglione, once used by cargo ships, the so-called "burci". When you arrive in Abano Terme, the beautiful thermal water pools await you in the hotel.

 ca. 55 km

DAY
4Abano Terme – Vicenza approx. 35 km

Again, the Bacchiglione is the guideline. Through fertile fields, it goes to Vicenza. The city, which the star architect of the Middle Ages, Palladio, helped to world fame. Numerous mansions and palaces based on his manuscript still characterize the cityscape today. The Teatro Olimpico and the Basilica are a must see for every visitor. Beautiful places also invite for a cappuccino break.

 ca. 35 kmDAY
5Vicenza – Bassano del Grappa approx. 40 km

From Vicenza, you will ride your bike on nice roads to Marostica, famous for its castle and stone chess board in the main square. Now, you are not far from Bassano del Grappa anymore, with its covered wooden bridge and the famous brandy, grappa. In the Poli Grappa Museum a little Grappa tasting session is prepared for you.

 ca. 40 kmDAY
6Bassano del Grappa – Treviso approx. 50 km

In the morning, you will cycle up some small hills after which only the climb to Asolo remains. The idyllic village of Roman origin invites you to take a first break. Then, the trail descends slightly and you will cycle into the region of the world famous Prosecco and further to Treviso with its many attractions.

 approx. 50 km

DAY
7Treviso – Venice-Mestre approx. 45 km

First, the path leads along the river Sile to Casale. Now, you are already close to the starting point of your trip. Your accommodation is located on the mainland before Venice with an excellent bus connection to the lagoon city. At the end of your tour, not far from Marcus square, you can look forward to a little wine tasting session.

 ca. 45 kmDAY
8Departure or extension

After breakfast, this fantastic cycling trip around Venice ends. You can book extra nights to explore Venice in more detail.

Route information

You will cycle on a mostly flat route. There will be one steeper climb to Asolo. Most roads are paved; partly you will find yourself on well-prepared nature trails. The tour is not very physically demanding.
