Details about the Bolzano to Venice bike tour

For enthusiasts of both fun and culture, there's a delightful reason to rejoice: a bike excursion through the mesmerizing lagoon city awaits, fulfilling every desire of your heart. Setting off from Bolzano, the vibrant capital of South Tyrol, your journey unfolds over rolling hills, traversing culturally rich cities and breathtaking landscapes.

Along this captivating route, indulge in brief detours and well-deserved pauses in enchanting locales such as Trento, Riva on Lake Garda, Verona, Vicenza, and Abano. With each pedal, your ultimate destination remains steadfast in your mind: the awe-inspiring Venice, the majestic lagoon city, greets you after a remarkable seven-day adventure.

And the experience doesn't end there. The splendour of St. Mark's Square, a gondola glide along the Grand Canal, and the city's unparalleled charm seamlessly weave together, culminating in a flawlessly perfect journey.

The highlights of the cycling holiday at a glance

- Boat trip on Lake Garda: Enjoy the roaring waves and the pleasantly breezy sea breeze on board. From Riva, you can give your body a rest. You cross Lake Garda by boat to Desenzano or Sirmione, from where the next leg continues to Verona.
- Casa di Giulietta: Romeo and Juliet are probably the most famous lovers in literature. In Verona, you can experience the charming old town with its winding streets and be inspired by Shakespeare's play "Casa di Giulietta".
- Venice: If you had to describe the lagoon city in three words, it would be: beauty, charm, and history. What can you expect in the floating city? St Mark's Basilica, Rialto Bridge, Doge's Palace and much more!

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Bolzano

Information meeting and issuance of the rental bicycles. The capital of South Tyrol invites you for a lovely walk through the city. The famous shopping street, vegetable market and Waltherplatz will bring you into the first Italian atmosphere. Or visit the archaeological museum and see the oldest human (ice) mummy ever found in Europe.

Bolzano – Trento approx. 70 km

Leaving Bolzano, you will cycle along the banks of the River Eisack. You will soon reach the Adige and via a wonderful route you will cycle through beautiful fruit orchards to Salorno where the German-speaking South Tyrol ends. Your tour continues through the vineyards of the powerful red wine "Teroldego" to the picturesque old town of Trento.

 ca. 70 km

DAY

Trento - Lake Garda South approx. 50 km

First, the route continues along the Adige towards Rovereto. From here it goes west towards Lake Garda. In Mori, you must stop for the well-known pistachio ice cream of Gelateria Bologna. After a short climb you can enjoy the beautiful view over the Northern Garda Lake in Nago. This is followed by an intoxicating descent to the shores of Torbole and on to Riva. From here it continues very relaxed by boat across the whole lake to Desenzano or Sirmione.

 ca. 50 km  Boottocht Riva - Desenzano of Sirmione

DAY
4Lake Garda South - Verona approx. 50 km

A beautiful landscape characterizes today's cycling stage. Everything that tastes is grown by the roadside: sparkling white wines, juicy peaches, sweet melons and even kiwis accompany you through a slightly hilly terrain to Verona, a city full of attractions (Festival Arena, House of Juliet, old city wall) .

 ca. 50 kmDAY
5Verona – Vicenza approx. 70 km

A flat start to the day and then through the hills of the "Monti Berici", the excursion area of Vicenza, with a beautiful view over the city. If you want to shorten this longer stage, you can also bridge the first part by train to San Bonifacio. In the old town of Vicenza you can still feel the spirit of Palladio, the famous architect of the Middle Ages.

 ca. 70 kmDAY
6Vicenza – Abano Terme/Padua approx. 45 - 55 km

You will see numerous Venetian villas when you leave Vicenza, such as the Villa Rotonda. Along the Bacchiglione, the route leads to Abano Terme, one of Italy's most famous spas. Padua, the city of St. Anthony and the Scholars, is easily accessible by bus from Abano Terme. You will have plenty of time to enjoy the thermal baths. For culture lovers it is possible, for a fee, to spend the night in Padua. (When choosing Charme hotels, this overnight stay is included!)

 ca. 45-55 km

DAY
7Abano Terme/Padua –
Venice/Mestreapprox. 40 - 50
km

With a light breeze at your back you cycle towards the Adriatic Sea. The landscape is characterized by extensive meadows and fields. The final destination is on the mainland before Venice with excellent bus links to the lagoon city. At the end of this trip, a drink on or around the famous St. Mark's Square should of course not be missed!

 ca. 40-50 kmDAY
8Return trip or extension

This tour can also be combined with the Adige cycle route from Innsbruck to Bolzano or can be extended with the tour from Venice to Florence.

Route information

The route is flat to slightly hilly; some effort at Monti Berici. The first two stages are mainly on cycle paths, south and east of Lake Garda, mostly on farm roads and service roads. Due to the lack of cycle paths, cycling on fairly busy roads is unavoidable in some parts. Paved roads almost everywhere.
