Details about the cycling tour around Piedmont

Experience the allure of Northern Italy through an exhilarating eight-day cycling tour, brimming with temptation and pleasure at every turn. Immerse yourself in a gastronomic haven as you explore Piedmont's abundant delicacies and treats. Your journey commences in Turin and unfolds through enchanting destinations like Cerreto d'Asti, Canelli, Alba, and Montafia. Traverse vibrant historic cities, indulging in a captivating blend of contrasts.

Within these urban centres, modern four-star hotels await, exuding elegance and sophistication to enhance your stay. In stark contrast, the rustic villages of Piedmont offer a different charm—relax in comfortable "agriturismo" accommodations, immersing yourself in authentic local flavours and genuine Italian allure. Your Northern Italy cycling adventure promises an unforgettable rendezvous with culture, cuisine, and captivating landscapes.

The highlights of the cycling holiday at a glance

- Asti - a city full of culture: The city is famous not only for its sparkling wine of the same name but also for the "Palio" contest. A horse race where competition for supremacy is held for a year.
- The eighth wine in Barbaresco: You cycle through Italy's most famous wine city. The house of the Barolo. Treat yourself to a glass of wine and watch the hustle and bustle of the Italians from a chair.
- Turin: One of the most beautiful cities in Italy. Authentic, fascinating, not too busy and a real destination for gourmands. Thanks to the beautiful baroque buildings, the kilometres of covered shopping arcades, beautiful squares and modern art, the city has an impressive appearance.

Worth knowing about the Piedmont bike tour

In eight days you will cycle through Piedmont, the cradle of truffles, wine and chocolate. Usually, you travel on back roads with little traffic. On the shorter stages on days three and four, there is plenty of time for fun stops. The route is ideal for ambitious holiday cyclists because the route is generally quite hilly with short, but also steeper passages. The itinerary covers between 35 and 50 kilometres per day.

This tour has been graded as Challenging. Find out more about our cycling holiday difficulty levels.
